BOARD CHARTER

1. INTRODUCTION

The enhancement of corporate governance standards is vital towards achieving the objectives of transparency, accountability and effective performance for Tanco Holdings Berhad (“THB” or the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (the “Group”). It is with the aim of enshrining concepts of good governance as promulgated by the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance (the “Code”) that this Board Charter (the “Charter”) is established.

The Charter serves as a reference point for Board activities and should not be construed as a blueprint for Board operations. Just as each organisation has its own corporate culture, the dynamics of each Board are unique. The dynamics shift as the composition of the Board changes, and the Directors of the Company should always be open to new opportunities and ready to confront new challenges brought about by the changes.

This Charter is designed to provide guidance and clarity for Directors and Management regarding the role of the Board and its Committees, the requirements of Directors in carrying out their stewardship role and in discharging their duties towards the Company as well as the Board's operating practices. This Charter does not overrule or pre-empt the statutory requirements of Directors enshrined in the Companies Act 2016, the Income Tax Act 1967 and other relevant statutes, including the conduct of the Board as stipulated in the Constitution of the Company.

2. INTERPRETATION

In this Charter:

"Board" means the Board of Directors of the Company;

"Chairman" means the Chairman of the Board;

"Company Secretary" means the Board secretary(ies) or the person(s) normally exercising the functions of a Board secretary;

"Group" means the Company and all its subsidiaries;

"Independent Director" is defined in accordance with Paragraph 1.01 of the Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities;

"Listing Requirements" means the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities;

"Management" means the management personnel of the Company and its subsidiaries;

"MCCG" means Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance;

"GMD " means the Group Managing Director;

"Shareholders" means the shareholders of the Company; and

“SC” means Securities Commission

3. THE BOARD

3.1 Role of the Board

- 3.1.1 The Board is charged with leading and managing the Company in an effective and responsible manner. Each Director has a legal duty to act in the best interest of the Company. The Directors, collectively and individually, are aware of their responsibilities to shareholders and stakeholders for the manner in which the affairs of the Company are managed. The Board sets the Company's values and standards and ensures that its obligations to its shareholders and stakeholders are understood and met.
- 3.1.2 The Board understands that the responsibility for good Corporate Governance rests with them and therefore strives to follow the principles and best practices stated in the MCCG. The Board includes a narrative statement in its Company's Annual Report on the extent of compliance with the principles and best practices in Corporate Governance pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of the Listing Requirements.
- 3.1.3 The Company complies with the various guidelines issued by Bursa Securities and the SC relating to disclosure and internal audit functions. The Group shall outsource its internal audit function to a professional consulting firm. The internal audit function shall be independent of the activities of the Group and performs its duties with impartiality, objectivity and due professional care.
- 3.1.4 Duties of the Board include establishing the corporate vision and mission, as well as the philosophy of the Company, setting the aims of the Management and monitoring the performance of the Management.

3.1.5 The principal responsibilities of the Board are:

- a) to review and adopt a strategic plan of the Group and responsible for monitoring the implementation of the strategic plan by management;
- b) to oversee the conduct of the Group's businesses and evaluate whether the businesses are being properly managed;
- c) to ensure that the Group's strategies promote sustainability;
- d) to identify principal business risks faced by the Company and the Group and ensure implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks;
- e) to consider and implement succession planning including the implementation of appropriate systems for recruitment, training and replacement of members of the Board, Board Committees and senior Management staff;
- f) to establish an appropriate framework at the Board level for boardroom diversity and to ensure appropriate focus on gender diversity.
- g) to oversee the development and implementation an investors relations programme or shareholder communication policy for the Group;
- h) to review the adequacy and the integrity of the Group's internal control systems and management information;
- i) to determine the remuneration of Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors of the Company, with the individuals concerned abstaining from discussions of their own remuneration; and
- j) to ensure that the Group adheres to high standards of ethics and corporate behaviour.

3.1.6 The Board has established written procedures determining which issues require a decision of the full Board and which issues can be delegated to Board Committees or the Management.

3.1.7 The Board reserves full decision-making powers on the following matters:

- a) Conflict of interest issues relating to a substantial shareholder or a Director;
- b) Material acquisitions and disposition of assets not in the ordinary course of business;
- c) Investments in Capital projects;
- d) Authority levels;
- e) Treasury policies;

- f) Risk management policies; and
- g) Key human resource issues.

3.1.8 In overseeing the conduct of the Group's businesses, the Board shall ensure that an appropriate financial planning, operating and reporting framework as well as an embedded risk management framework is established. Elements under this combined framework include the operating plan and budget, financial statements, performance review reports and risk management reports.

3.1.9 The Board as well as any Director may seek independent professional advice relating to the affairs of the Group or his responsibilities as a Director, at the Company's expense. If a Director considers such advice necessary, for the benefit of the Company, such Director shall first discuss it with the GMD and having done so, shall be free to proceed, where appropriate. The Director must also ensure that it is practicable and the cost is reasonable.

3.2 Composition and Board Balance

3.2.1 The Board consists of qualified individuals with diverse experiences, backgrounds and perspectives. The composition and size of the Board is such that it facilitates the making of informed and critical decisions.

The Company's Constitution allow a minimum of two (2) and a maximum of eleven (11) Directors. It is important for the Board to keep its size at a reasonable level, Boards that are too small or too large may significantly limit the level of individual participation, involvement and effectiveness. The Board shall, from time to time, examine its size with a view to determine the impact of its number upon its effectiveness.

3.2.2 The Board also recognises the importance of independence and objectivity in the decision making process. At least two (2) Directors or one-third (1/3) of the Board shall consist of Independent Directors, whichever is the higher and at least one (1) Director of the Company is a woman.

3.2.3 The Independent Directors provide independent judgement, experience and objectivity without being subordinated to operational considerations.

3.2.4 The Independent Directors help to ensure that the interests of all shareholders, and not only the interests of a particular fraction or group, are indeed taken into account by the Board and that the relevant issues are subjected to objective and impartial consideration by the Board.

3.2.5 The views of the Independent Directors should carry significant weight in the Board's decision-making process.

3.2.6 The Board identified and appoints from amongst its members, a Senior Independent Non-Executive Director to whom the concerns of Directors and shareholders of the Company may be conveyed, the name of the Senior Independent Non-Executive Director shall be disclosed in the Annual Report of the Company.

- 3.2.7 No person shall be appointed, re-appointed, elected or re-elected as a Director on the Board or continue to serve as a Director if the person is or becomes an active politician. A person is considered as “active politician” if he is a member of Parliament, State Assemblyman or holds a position at the Supreme Council or division level in a political party.

3.3 Chairman and Group Managing Director

The Board recognises the importance of having a clearly accepted division of power and responsibilities at the head of the Company to ensure a balance of power and authority. For this purpose, the positions of the Chairman of the Board and the Group Managing Director is held by different Directors of the Company. The Chairman must be a non-executive member of the Board.
